

You're invited to a special day at Texas State University-San Marcos, Tuesday, April 14, 2009

Student Meet and Greet, 3:30 – 5 p.m., Old Main

Get a taste of Texas State (and some pizza!) by visiting our historic Old Main building and talking with current Texas State freshmen about what it's like to be a student on our beautiful campus. Faculty and staff will join in to answer all your questions and fill you in on what Texas State has to offer you.

Lyndon B. Johnson Distinguished Lecture, 5:30 p.m., Evans Auditorium

For 27 years, the Lyndon B. Johnson Lecture Series has brought accomplished individuals such as former Congresswoman Barbara Jordan and former U.S. President Gerald Ford to the Texas State campus to share their experiences and philosophies. This year that tradition continues with a special twist as Luci Baines Johnson and Lynda Johnson Robb honor their father, Lyndon B. Johnson, with a presentation about the 36th U.S. president and Texas State's most distinguished alumnus.

Did you know?

Texas State is the only university in Texas to have graduated a U.S. president — Lyndon B. Johnson.
